

OCTOBER SOUTH FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL CUP IS GETTING CLOSER!

Dear hockey friends,

This invitation has been sent to adult organizations/teams across North America, Russia and Europe as an invitation to be part of the cup. Formally known as the Palm Beach Strangers International Tournament, has previously participated by players from NHL, KHL and SM-Liiga. We are happy to inform you, that teams we are inviting internationally from Finland, Sweden, Russia, Canada, France, Slovakia, USA and Czech Republic.

FLSportService International Cup teams are comprised primarily of players with advanced hockey skills. Players previously played at the highest levels of hockey including professional (NHL, KHL and SM-Liiga), NCAA and Juniors around the world.

The FLSportService will accept only 12 teams into this high A and B level adult hockey tournament. So, if you want to be a part of it, please be quick, as there are only a few spots available!

General information

Each team will play once against each other in the same group. The final game on Friday will be between the top two teams. Each team is guaranteed to play 4 games, Monday through Friday. In each game, the winner can get up to five points. If tied after the third period, each team will receive 1 point on top of the points they might have won during the 3 periods of play. Tournament rules will be sent out to each team, after confirmation of participation in the tournament.
